

Safe Harbour: Respect for All is about a vision in action: creating opportunities for institutions and communities to create respectful, welcoming workplaces and communities.

This training program delivered by Abbotsford Community Services in the Fraser Valley, aims to create safer, more welcoming communities that support diversity and reject discrimination.

Race and Anti-racism
Network (RAN)
