Every year,

$2,500 to be used at the discretion of the award recipient (contact the University Secretary to discuss options).

and syllabi submitted in the nomination package, as outlined in the Nomination Mechanism (no edits to remove negative comments).

exceptions may have to be made depending on the faculty or program, (i.e., Faculty of Access and Continuing Education)

Evaluations denote a high level of teaching competence;

Provides a summary that outlines how student suggestions for improvements in course evaluations have been addressed (limit 500 words)

Comments suggest the professor cares and makes extraordinary efforts to support deep learning and understanding

1.2. Learning Outcomes

The syllabialign assessments and learning activities to the learning outcomes, as set out in the UFV official course outline.

1.3. Student Engagement

Evidence of student engagement in learning (such as active learning strategies, field experiences, service learning, learning communities, and/or undergraduate research)

Engages and supports students outside of class; i.e. liaison/advocacy, mentorship, or partnering with clubs or other departments such as Student Services, Academic Success Centre, Career Centre, etc.

1.4. Teaching Innovation

Utilizes innovative pedagogical approaches; i.e., game-

4. Service

Service as it relates to Sonproved Teaching and Arghing and Arghing at UFVO 9 (5 0 0) J O J O Develops and conducts teaching workshops, seminars or other resources Mentors and collaborates with other faculty members to support the improvement of teaching practice Participates in educational planning and policy making Provides opportunities for students and faculty to participate in community-based learning activities Participates in committees related to teaching and learning

The UFV Teaching Excellence Award selection committee is a subcommittee of the Senate Teaching and Learning Committee, and is responsible for receiving nominations, and recommending a recipient for the award. The Senate Awards and Honours Committee reviews the documentation to ensure 54 5F0009Af0 to ensure