

STUDENT ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

Approval Authority	Senate
Responsible Executive	Provost and Vice-President, Academic
Related Policies / Legislation	Grading System (101) Appropriate Use of Computing and Network Resources (14) Copyright Compliance (7) Responsible Conduct of Research and Scholarship (53) Intellectual Property (55) Human Research Ethics (54) Safe Student Learning Community (204) policy include plagiarism; cheating; fabrication, falsification, or modification of academic documents or records; resubmission of work; improper research practices; obstructing the academic activities of others; and aiding and abetting. Definitions and examples of these forms of Academic Misconduct are provided in the Procedures and Regulations document.

Academic Work: Refers to any instrument used for measuring a Student's attainment of specified educational outcomes, including, but not limited to, assignments, term papers and essays, examinations, tests, quizzes, essays, projects, clinical and practicum placements, internships, presentations, online discussions, performances, exhibitions, blogs and/or informal writing, or research papers/projects.

Business Days: Business days refer to days that the university is fully open for business, whether for all or part of the day. Business days do not include weekends, statutory holidays, or institutional closures for weather, holiday, or other reasons.

Employee: A person who is employed by or contracted with the university or an agent of the university including, but not limited to, faculty, staff, sessional instructors, and security personnel

Procedures and Regulations: Refers to the process and regulations which are used and followed when pursuing an allegation of Academic Misconduct

Standard of Proof: The allegation is more likely to be true than not true based on the findings of the investigation.

Student: A person who has been enrolled in, is currently enrolled in, or is accepted for enrollment in at least one University course, for credit or non-credit

Students have responsibilities and rights to:

- "Ensure they are familiar with the generally accepted standards and r

- "Impose disciplinary sanctions that reflect the nature and severity of any Academic Misconduct"⁸ as outlined in the Procedures and Regulations document.
- Uphold the Standard of Proof when adjudicating alleged Academic Misconduct.
- Maintain an Academic Misconduct registry and submit high level reports on incidences of Academic Misconduct, including decisions and sanctions, to the University Senate.
- Handle information and records related to Academic Misconduct in compliance with British Columbia's Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.