

Master of Education (Educational Leadership and Mentorship)

Admission Requirements:

1. Applications open November 15th, 2022 and close January 31st, 2023 for admission to the July 2023 cohort.
- 2.

- a. What experiences have motivated you to continue your education degree at the graduate level?
 - b. Describe at least two recent accomplishments within your professional practice that demonstrate your capacity for innovative and independent thinking.
 - c. Describe a situation in which you have demonstrated leadership in your school or district. What do you hope to learn in a graduate program to enhance your leadership and mentorship knowledge and capacities?
 - d. Select an issue, concern, dilemma you are witnessing in today's complex educational context and explain why it is important to you and how you would approach addressing it.
 - e. Imagine you have been tasked to design an ideal school or district, how would schools and districts be structured with regards to leadership and mentorship? How would leaders be supported and encouraged?
-
- 5. Have an official transcript sent directly from all post-secondary institutions you have attended to admissions@ufv.ca.

 - 6. Arrange for three referees to complete the "Admission Reference Form" available on the MEd website. Upon completion, please instruct referees to submit this form electronically to admissions@ufv.ca.

 - 7. Evidence of teaching certification: Submit a copy of your current Certificate Verification Card. Please be aware that you will be asked to show your original card on the first day of class.

 - 8. Indicate here if you plan to supervise/mentor a UFV teacher candidate at any time during the two years of the MEd program.
-

Ensure all of the above documents are sent electronically to admissions@ufv.ca.